

Nothing Greater

All the doctor's knowledge
All the rich man's gold
Can't help a broken heart
Can't heal a despairing soul

Oh, the wise man's wisdom
Can't be wise enough
There's nothing greater than love

Gone is the doubt
And every fear
Sweet every hour
When love is here

No words can tell
The peace of mind
The world is shining
In lightest light

All the wiseman's wisdom
Can't be wise enough
There's nothing greater than love

The storm of life
Can howl and shake
The darkness flies
Love keeps you awake

Your eyes can see
The plan of God
You'll be newborn
In word and thought
