

Words Of Love

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf/ Frank Diez

Publisher: Capriccio/Warner/Chappell

No painter with a picture, no writer with a tale
Not even I with this song
Can tell you about my sweet love

No night with the darkness, no winter with the falling snow
No shadow on my face
Can hide my sweet love to you

With these gentle tunes that are whispering to my heart
I try to find the words of love
I give up my freedom, give up my proud name
And I'm not ashamed, 'cause I'm in love

Like a bird of prey you carried me away
And I had no chance to fight against that lovely flight

What is this that makes me feeling so different
Than many, many days in my life before
How is it when I've to miss your kisses
And don't feel your gentle touch any more
