

This Night

I 've got you on the phone
But you were not alone
You put me under your spell
That's what I wanted to tell you this night

What happened to my life
I think I'm gonna dive
Why can't you be with me
I'm drowning in a sea of love this night

You said that you will see me tomorrow
Didn't you feel you left me in sorrow?
I know you hold another girl tight, but

Oh, I want you this night
Oh, I want you this night
Oh, I want you this night
Oh, I want you this night

I made about a hundred decisions
Went through all my inner visions
I fought myself the toughest fight, but

Oh, I want you this night...
