Take all your love
Take all your faith
Take all your hope
We'll sail away
Take all your trust
Night and day
Come on we'll sail away

Come on – we're rolling
Come on – we're rolling
Come on – we're rolling
Yeah, we sail away

We'll sail away...

Over hidden rock and shoal
On unknown waves we roll
The compass and the chart
Is the courage in our heart

You can hear the breakers roar
When we get near to the shore
We're on the wave of grace
To our predestinated space
