Ooh, tell me good news, good news
Ooh, tell me good news, good good news

I know a man of love
He came my way
I know a man of healing
In his name we pray

I know a man of wisdom
He makes my day
I've got a master
He shows me the way

Ooh, tell me good news, good news
Ooh, tell me good news, good good news

He looks into my heart
And takes the sins off me
He looks into my soul
Drives away my agony

I've got a real friend
He sets me free
He's a man
Of glory

Ooh, tell me good news, good news
Ooh, tell me good news, good good news

A big piece of me belongs to everyone
When I'm a servant for your soul my soul has won
When I can give I will live
Ain't that good, good, good, good, news!
