

All Free

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf
Copyright Control

All the best things cost nothing
It sounds odd but it's true
You will understand me

You can be a big spender
Without spending a dime
All the best things are free

Just say a good word
Avoid unpleasant talk
Encourage your neighbour patiently

Give the old one a hand
Lend a lonely one your ear
It costs nothing - it is free

Forgive and forget and try to stay cool
It's not always meant seriously
Let your heart write a letter
Let your soul make a call
All the best things are free

Do what you've promised
Admit a mistake
Smile at one's oddity

Laugh with the children
And be satisfied
It costs nothing - it is free

Some good advice can cheer up the sad
Just play with your fantasy
Give the suffering hope and a sense of life
All the best things are free

All the best things cost nothing
It sounds odd but it's true
Now you're understanding me
You can be a big spender
Without spending a dime
All the best things - are free