

Days Of Giving

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf
Musikverlag: Capriccio/Warner/Chappell

Some people try to live in harmony
Find out every possibility
Getting up, falling down
'Cause there are so many fools around

Some people try to understand
What's going on in this land
Looking for the worth of living
In these easy days of giving

Ooh, where is it going to?
We're drifting through the time
Pale in our mind
Is there everything out of tune?

New religions in a topical shape
Promise the blessed star of human being

But what does it take
Look around, people, all you need now
You've got to throw it away

Ooh, where is it going to
Is there such a gap
Between what your mind satisfies
And what your body wanna have
