

Days Of You And Me

Words & Music: Randolph/Rumpf/Conti

When everything's too hot to handle for me
The open road starts calling out my name, yeah
And drivin' fast with the windows down
The speed reminds me about when you were around
I feel the storm like you're sitting next to me

I feel the wind attack my face
How we lifted up into space
I can remember all those days
Where only love would stay

Looking out for the days of you and me
Captured in eternity
Looking out for the days of feeling free
I long for your company, yeah

How can I ever forget your impression on me, oh, yeah
A kind of love I never could deny
I know some minute when we least expect it
We'll meet again and we'll be attracted
Holding on to the days of you and me, yeah

Looking out for the time of you and me
Captured in eternity
Looking out for the ways of feeling free
I want your love again
Love me again
