

Everything Is Possible

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf

In the moment of stillness
In the hold of time
In the deepness of yourself
You can pass a borderline

You're painting a picture
You're composing a song
You suddenly reach the goal
And you don't know where it comes from

Oh, it's such a simple thing
Power's based on rest
You'll get more than a piece of all
Good is not the best!

Everything is possible
You'll get high and far
Everything is possible
Do you know who you are?

Take a walk by the river
Watch the water flow
Down under the open sky
You see the clouds come and go

No, it's not a mystery
It's an everlasting frame
Let it happen, let it go
And get the burning flame

Everything is possible
You can touch the borderline
Everything is possible
Yeah, you're so divine

Everything is possible
You'll get high and far
Everything is possible
Do you really know who you are?
