

I'd Like To Be A Child Again

Words & Music: Udo Lindenberg/Jean-Jacques Kravetz

Sung by Inga Rumpf (Kravetz)

Sometimes I wish
I had a time machine
I would press the button
And I'd be a child again
In my little northern hometown
Where the good old seawind blew

Where we've played our games
In the yellow sand
Where we've always had a lot
Of important things to do
Where we've thought this kind of life
Would never end

There was so much goin' on
And the world was full of sensations
And ev'ry single day
Had a hundred phantastic situations

Ridin' on a sunbeam
Runnin' through the rain
I'd like to be a child again

I close my eyes
I see pictures of memory
I was playin' in a garden
Where the flowers were even taller than me
Where I've met that little boy - my first love
He said, he would be a superstar
We were sure that we would marry
But then he changed his mind
And he fell in love with racing cars
