

In The Beginning

Since you left me, baby
Oh, you hurt me so much
I've just one question, baby
'Cause my mind is breaking up, oh yeah!

Now, please tell me someone now
What shall I do?
'Cause my heart's been stolen
Taken by you

In the beginning I found
Myself in sunshine all around
But that's all many, many, many Years ago, oh, yes it was

There was no difference between you and me
The way we lived together that's what you call company
But that was many, many, many
Years ago

So tell me people
Well, I hope you'll understand me
Why did he go
And left me here alone

I tried to be so good to him
And I thought I understood him
But now he's got another girl
And I'm crying in the shadow
