I'm feeling like playing a tune
Soft and slow to zoom
My sigh needs a home

I'm feeling like singing a song
To feel easy just one night long
My soul don't wanna be alone

If you don't have what you love
Then you have to love what you've got
When it's good it could be better
For some enough is not enough

How bad it is it could be worse
Seems you always get what you can bear
And if the worst comes to the worst
Maybe a song will carry you somewhere

I'm feeling like drinking some wine
Light up a candle and feel fine
And make this house my home
