My babe and I lived in harmony

But shit happened, he had to leave me
I was so sad, I was tumbling around
Day and night my head was hanging down

But then he talked to me:
Come on, baby, set yourself free
Yeah, he talked to me:
Come on, baby, set yourself free

Think about the good times we had together
Think about the sunny days and the stormy weather
We climbed the mountains and we passed the valleys
We walked through dark roads and bright alleys

Yeah, he talked to me:
Come on, baby, set yourself free
Yeah, he talked to me:
Come on, baby, set yourself free

Loving souls are never apart
Keep my love always in your heart
Sometimes we're up and sometimes we're down
If there's no cross - there's no crown
If there's no cross - there's no crown

Oh, my babe, we paid a real high price
To learn our lesson and to get this advice
Now you talk to me from the highest level:
Stop mourning over me and start to revel

Yeah, come on, talk to me
I wanna set myself free
Yeah, come on, talk to me
I wanna set myself free

Loving souls are never apart
Keep my love always in your heart
Sometimes we're up and sometimes we're down
If there's no cross - there's no crown
If there's no cross - there's no crown
