

Somewhere

Words & Music: Alex Conti

Somewhere, where we can have a laugh or two
Where life is never ever blue
And I can live my life for you

Far away, from everyone we've known
Where no one else will ever go
And I can say I love you so

Somewhere, where our life's worth living
Somewhere, where there's only giving
Never ever fear or worry
Never need to rush or hurry

Always me, me and you together
Always sunny honey weather
Anybody know me, anybody show me
Please show me the way to go, somewhere

Somewhere, please tell me if you know a land
That's not held in devil's hand
And nothing underhand is planned, somewhere
