Words & Music: Adrian Askew/Alex Conti

Can I tell you again about Saturday night
And the things we did to feel all right
We didn't care about the trouble we would do

All the guys around with their motorbikes
Drink a few beers and start up fights
We'd all stamp and shout, that's when I first met you

I wanted to flirt and go with the guys
They had to have me, when I winked my eyes
They all knew they'd get what they were after

All my sisters used to hate me
'Cause I was the queen of my family
And I would do my thing just for kicks and laughter

You showed me a new way of life
Take me away and make me your wife
You didn't know what kind of girl I was

You told me we'd settle down
Save up and buy a house downtown
But I'm just a girl who lives the way I choose
