

Yes, I would

Ask me, if I would climb with you uphill
Though the mountain is so steep

Ask me, if I would dive with you down to the chill
Though the ocean is so deep

Ask me to share my lifebelt
Or my parachute
Ask me to be your baby
I would answer you:

Yes, I would
Whatever will happen, it will be good

Ask me, if you could borrow my credit card
There' s always something on my account

Ask me, if you could have a little place in my heart
Though there're so many good-looking guys around

Ask me to share my towel
And my shampoo, too
Ask me to share my hours
I would answer you:

Yes, I would
Whatever will happen, it will be good
